

City of McKinney Media Update
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jelly Belly Bus Reschedules Visit to McKinney

McKINNEY, TEXAS (Sept. 23, 2009) – The Jelly Belly Bus, scheduled to visit Historic Downtown McKinney on Thursday, Sept. 24, has rescheduled their visit due to the bus being involved in an accident late Wednesday evening. Thankfully no one was hurt; however the bus was damaged and is currently being repaired.

The forty foot-long, fully accessorized Jelly Belly RV has rescheduled their highly anticipated visit to October 1, 2009 and will be parked in front of MOM and POPcorn Company at 215 E. Louisiana from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. giving away goodies and tours of the unique vehicle.

###

About McKinney

McKinney, Texas, is unique by nature. As one of the fastest-growing cities in the U.S., McKinney has a current population of 122,000. Incorporated in 1848, the city is located 30 miles north of Dallas and is the county seat of Collin County. McKinney offers rolling hills, lush trees, a historic downtown square and unique neighborhoods and developments. Visit the city's Web site at www.mckinneytexas.org.

Media contact: Anna Folmnsbee, 972-547-7525, afolmnsb@mckinneytexas.org