

City of McKinney Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

City Manager resigns

McKINNEY, TEXAS (June 8, 2010) – After meeting with members of the City Council and coming to a mutual understanding of the best interests of the City Council and City Manager Frank Ragan, Mr. Ragan submitted his resignation to Mayor Brian Loughmiller, effective Tuesday, June 8, 2010. Mr. Ragan has been the City Manager in McKinney since March 2008.

“On behalf of each member of the City Council, we all thank Mr. Ragan for his services to the city. While we believe that a new direction is necessary for the City of McKinney, we certainly are appreciative of Mr. Ragan’s efforts and wish him all the best in his future endeavors,” said Loughmiller.

Mayor Loughmiller stated that the transition will be seamless and that McKinney residents will continue to receive the same high quality of City services. The City Council will meet in the near future and discuss the process to select a new city manager.

###

About McKinney

McKinney, Texas, is unique by nature. As one of the fastest-growing cities in the U.S., McKinney has a current population of 126,500. Incorporated in 1848, the city is located 30 miles north of Dallas and is the county seat of Collin County. McKinney offers rolling hills, lush trees, a historic downtown square and unique neighborhoods and developments, and it was recently ranked as one of the Top 10 Best Places to Move by Forbes Magazine. Visit the city’s Web site at www.mckinneytexas.org.

Media Contact: Anna Folmsbee, afolmsb@mckinneytexas.org, 972-547-7525