General Guidelines

- Local authors must work or reside in the Collin County area and possess a McKinney Public Library card.
- Books based in Collin County will be considered for inclusion, even if the author is not a local resident.
- Local authors must be 12 years or older; authors younger than 18 must have parental consent to donate book.
- Printed books must be bound in hardcover or trade paperback formats in suitable condition for circulating.
- Book submissions will be reviewed by a selection team. Decisions made by the team are final.
- Books in the collection will be circulating, and may be checked out by card-holders.
- Books may be withdrawn from the collection by Library staff according to the Collection Development Policy.
- Family histories should be directed by the author to the Genealogy and Local History Collection, McKinney Public Library, for consideration in that collection.
- No more than three books from a single author will be accepted in a 12 month period.

- The book must be a donated copy and will not be purchased by the library for the Local Author Collection. Two copies must be donated in order for one to be shelved in the Local Author Collection in both the Hall Library and the John and Judy Gay Library.
- The donated copy(s) will be considered for addition to the collection based on our selection criteria and may or may not be added.
- If the item is not added to the collection, it may be picked up by the author or directed to be added to the libraries' Recycle a Book shelves.
- Submission of this form does not guarantee selection. All books must be approved by the Local Author Collection selection committee to be added to the Local Author Collection. Decisions made by the team are final.
- Due to limited staff, the Selection Team is not able to meet with every author to discuss the work.
- Authors will be notified within a month if their work is accepted.
- The author must represent and warrant full ownership and/or legal rights to publish all material in this book, including artwork.
