

McKinney Public Library System Privacy Policy

The McKinney Public Library System is committed to the protection of all Library customers' rights to privacy in the use of Library resources and discloses customer information to the customer only. In regard to minors, information may also be disclosed to the registered parent/guardian listed on the account.

Records of customer transactions are retained if the patron chooses the option to keep a reading history, or if fees are associated with the account.

Library records will only be disclosed under court order, subpoena, or warrant as outlined in the state statute, Texas Government Code, Section 552.124 and the surveillance provisions included in the USA PATRIOT ACT (Public Law 107-56).
